SUP. THOMAS PLEASED WITH SELECTION OF INTERIM COUNTY EXECUTIVE

Marvin Pratt is a wise choice to lead Milwaukee County through April 5

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Johnny L. Thomas released the following statement regarding the appointment of an Interim County Executive

“The April 5 election will determine who succeeds Scott Walker as the next elected County Executive. In the meantime, congratulations are in order for three parties:

- 1) I congratulate Marvin Pratt on being appointed Interim Milwaukee County Executive.
- 2) I congratulate Lee Holloway, who has demonstrated leadership in appointing Marvin Pratt to the County Executive’s office. Pratt’s résumé is excellent for this job – including experience in the private and public sectors, in politics, and in the military.
- 3) I congratulate the people of Milwaukee County. The quality of your County government will be benefit from Mr. Pratt’s measured, yet forward-looking approach to the job. Not satisfied to be simply a caretaker, he has shown strong interest in exploring a partnership with MPS, to combine the County and MPS employee health plans, thus creating a larger base with the clout necessary to negotiate significantly lower health care costs. That will save tax dollars for everybody.”

“With that, I am enthusiastic about voting to confirm this appointment and look forward to working with Marvin Pratt during his tenure as County Executive.”
